*Celebrating
15 Years of Excellence*

We are proud to have the one of the most respected lighting companies, Angstrom Lighting a newly acquired division of 204 Inc. For over 33 years, Angstrom Lighting has been selling and servicing the West Coast with a wide range of products for theatre, corporate, special events, trade shows, schools, houses of worship, architectural applications, television and film. Angstrom has a passion for lighting that is unparalleled working with thousands of producers, designers, technicians and individuals from a variety of industries. At Angstrom Lighting we take pride in providing you with extraordinary design and technical expertise. No matter what your lighting needs are, Angstrom has it!

OUR JOURNEY

As any good producer knows, production budgets and invoices have itemized lines. Each line represents a different department or section of the budget. Line 204 is where you will find the "Production Rentals" section. Since I feel we are the best at what we do, it only made sense that I would call the company "Line 204". When you think of rentals for your production needs, you think of LINE 204.

From the very beginning, when I was working out of my garage in Studio City, Line 204 had been built upon the bedrock of hard work, determination and relationships. Each of one of these components is key to earning and keeping our business. Although we have grown in size, we never want the company to "feel" big. We still operate by two simple rules from the "garage days": 1) to have the best equipment and 2) to give the best customer service. It's these two guidelines that keep us grounded and gives our customers a personable and professional experience.

We do not take our customers for granted. It's a symbiotic relationship - as their companies grow, so does ours. Over the years we've taken to heart concerns, praised constructive criticism and acted upon the wants/needs of our clientele. That is the reason for our continued growth. I started in 1997 with Production supplies: tables, coolers, tents, etc... then expanded 2 years later to communications: walkies, cell phones, internet boxes, followed by motor homes, off road carts, portable restrooms, and generator. Creating the Studios was the next big step with: 3 - 7K square foot sound stages and 10k square ft of production office rental space. Our clients loyalty is the reason we have come so far, so fast. Each comment is an opportunity to create a better experience for our past, current and future customers.

With that said, in early 2010, I felt that there was a lack of a true "one stop shop" in the event industry. That's when I decided to launch our newest division, 204 Events! This is just another way to better serve our client base and we are excited to provide this for all of your event needs - corporate functions, launch parties and even personal events such as weddings and charity galas.

At Line 204, we do not want to simply be given your business. We want to earn it. Test us. We will not disappoint you.

President

THE NEWEST

For years, many of Line 204's most elite clientele were asking us for referrals to help supply their professional and personal events. While live events were not something we handled directly, we were proud that our customers trusted us to point them in the right direction. However, we always knew that no other company could service our clients better than us. In February 2010, we made a decision that we would apply our "top notch rentals, outstanding prices and unparalleled customer service" mantra to a new division of our company.

204 Events was born.

Thankfully, the response has been overwhelming! By leading with our family-like customer service, we have quickly become the "ultimate one stop shop" for all special equipment needs. Any and everything needed for wrap parties, launch parties, charity galas, weddings, concerts, etc. you will find at 204 Events and Angstrom Lighting.

We have already begun service and partnerships with some of Hollywood's largest studios and most exclusive event planners. We are excited to earn your business as well. Please take a few moments to review our catalog. Better yet, contact us today for a free consultation with one of our experienced Event Specialist team members. We don't want to just "be the company you rented your equipment from," we want to be an integral element of your party. That way we succeed together.

Find out why 204 Events is one of the fastest growing companies in the event world.

Test us.

"Our MISSION is to provide unparalleled comitment and consistently exceed all of our clients' expectations."

EAT.

START FROM THE OUTSIDE
AND WORK YOUR WAY IN!

SILVERWARE

B

When setting a table whether formal or informal there's a rule to the proper use of silverware. Always set your silverware according to use, from the outside in and first course to main course. Keep it simple and only set utensils that will be used.

Forks, Spoons & Knives:

Forks should be placed to the left of the plate, knives and spoons to the right. The only exception to this rule is a small cocktail fork, which goes on the outermost right side of the plate. Place knives with their cutting edge towards the plate, and make sure all of the utensil handles line up. If possible, remove the used utensils after each course.

Butter Plate & Spreader:

When serving bread, place a butter plate above the forks to the left of the plate and include a butter knife or spreader.

Dessert Silverware:

If you serve dessert, the silverware should be placed above the plate with the fork handle to the left and the spoon or knife handle to the right (the cutting edge should face down). You can also just bring out dessert silverware with the dessert.

BRING THE INDOORS OUT.

Catering an event outside can be a breeze by simply building a temporary kitchen. A BBQ is easy enough but if you plan on preparing a meal for over 50 people, there are a few special items you'll need to ensure health codes are met and your food service runs smoothly.

CATERING EQUIPMENT

Catering Tips

- Event Tent - An event tent will allow you to shelter the buffet, dining area and kitchen at an outdoor event. This is especially important if you will be creating a temporary outdoor kitchen or if no shelter is available.
- Ice Caddy - An ice caddy allows you to keep your ice cold for long periods of time, even in the hot sun.
- Portable Hand Sink - If there is no outdoor hand sink available at the event location, a portable hand sink must be used to meet most health codes.
- Electric Chafing Stoves - For outdoor areas with open-flame restrictions, electric chafing stoves should be used in place of gas chafing fuel.

BARS & ACCESSORIES

Facts And Figures.

FACT: You will need 1 bar, 1 bartender and 1 bar back for every 75 people. For beer and wine events, you need 1 per 50 people for full liquor bar events.

FIGURE: 3 drinks per guest for a cocktail party and 4 drinks per guest for a sit-down dinner party. You'll need 4-6 drinks per guest for an evening-long event.

A standard bottle of wine will provide five servings. A standard bottle of champagne will provide six servings and a case of champagne will provide 72 servings. A large bottle of liquor will provide 25 servings—don't forget three bottles of drink mix for every bottle of liquor.

LINEN

THE ART OF THE NAPKIN

The napkin is a beautiful accessory at the table and has a definite etiquette to be followed. Here's a few things to remember ya'll:

- After sitting, unfold your napkin and place it in your lap (don't tuck it in your collar). After the host or hostess has placed his or her napkin in their lap, this is the signal the meal has begun.
- Use the napkin to blot your lips as needed and before taking a drink. Never wipe.
- When the meal is completed, the napkin is folded loosely and placed to the left of your plate (or in the center of your place setting if your plate has been cleared).
- Small napkins are used during informal meals. They are completely unfolded.

THE CLASSIC

When the occasion calls for you to be classic and economical, our rainbow collection of poly linens is the perfect foundation for your table setting.

THE REVOLUTION OF LED LIGHTING

First invented in the 1960s, LED (light emitting diode) lights have found their way into virtually every product that needs or provides a source of light. They have taken the event scene by storm because they use less electricity, produce less heat, can produce any desired color without applying a gel and are eco-friendly! LED lights are the best light source for our Translucent Collection which we design and manufacture in house. These beautiful lighted products are not only decorative but a great light source for indoor/outdoor events.

SIZE MATTERS.

The sky's the limit when deciding how to set your table for a dinner large or small. As you plan, keep a few tips in mind to assure a comfortable and exciting event. First, make sure to give your guests enough room for eating and a relaxed conversation. Plan on at least 4 feet between each table for guest flow and food service. Second, make the room interesting by using different table shapes. For seating, trade traditional for eclectic by using a mixture of chairs with benches and banquettes!

UNIQUE SETTINGS

Geometric tables create eye-catching seating arrangements and buffet designs. Ask our Rental Specialists to recommend the right linen to fit your table setting. We are here to serve you!

ANGSTROM LIGHTING

For more than 30 years, Angstrom Lighting has been the vendor of choice for theatres and venues in Hollywood, downtown and the westside. Our merger with Line 204 in 2010 has breathed new life into the company and increased our reach. Now Angstrom is expanding further, and making new relationships in special event production, television, and film. 204 Events and Angstrom Lighting together provide an innovative, integrated solution for planning, design and production that cannot be matched anywhere.

Let us shine for you!
